

1 One person appeared before us, a Nebraskan
2 who spent seven and a half years observing the Nebraska
3 Legislature, a partisan. He says that they operate like
4 49 different political parties.

5 The Kansas Commission on Constitutional Re-
6 vision a few years ago expressed my philosophy on this.
7 They said they recognized the whole tradition and the 8 widely varying views that exist; that on this issue they
9 decided that the effort to achieve the practicable, less
10 than perfect, is to be preferred to a vain attempt to 11 achieve the ideal.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you.

13 Before recognizing Delegate Hanson we will
14 pause a few moments to change the tape.

15 Delegate Hanson.

16 DELEGATE HANSON: Mr. Chairman, I yield
17 three minutes to Delegate Grumbacher.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Grumbacher.

19 DELEGATE GRUMBACHER: Mr. Chairman, I have 20 the misfortune of being rather simple minded. I have 21 been a businessman all of my life until last spring, and
